The Great Invention of the Age! FARM NEAR WASHINGTON FOR SALE. iteam Supplanted! - Gas Triumphant!

The Great Invention of the Age!

Steam Supplanted!—Gas Triumphant!!

The first half of the nineteenth century will be recorded as the age of Steam. It has passed, and with it will pass the steam engine with the things that were.

The second half of the century will be known as commencing the age of Gas—an agent destined not only to light but to Exhibiting the world. The age has now commenced, and with it is now introduced the Gas Engine.

Professor John C. F. Salomon, after twenty-six years of close observation upon the experiments of his own and of others in attempts to make the principle of the condensation of carbonic acid gas available as a mechanic motor, has perfected the same; and, having just received letters patent for his "Improved Carbonic Acid Engine," now offers to dispose of rights for the use thereof to the United States government, and to individuals or to companies the rights of States, counties, or cities.

The immense saving of money and labor, and of human lives and suffering, secured by the use of this new motor, will inevitably insure its 'speedy adoption 'in all places where steam power is now used, and in thousands of other places where the great expense, bulk, and weight of the steam engine has procluded its use.

This new motor may be applied to all purposes as a propelling agent, from the single-horse power for the cotton-qin to the two thousand horse power for ocean steamers, with the expense less than that required by the steam engine, of boilers and furnaces, fuel and firemen, and of bulk and weight—100 tons weight sufficing for the same power of 1,200 tons of the steam engine.

These facts are established by the experimental engine of twenty-five (25) horse power, now "working well" at Cincinnati, as noticed in the following from the Cincinnati "Nonpareli," of the 18th instant:

"We are pleased to state that J. C. F. Salomon, late of this city, has received a patent for his motor of carbonic acid gas, in its application to an engine. The successful experiments of this invention we

Letter from Mr. Royse, of New Albany, Indiana, inventor of a Rodary Plough.

Washington, January 30, 1852.

Mr. Elder—Sir: I cheerfully avail myself of this opportunity to give you a few brief statements in reference to Professor Salomon's New Mechanical Motor, as it is your request, as well as a duty I owe my country. The facts are the following, as near as I may recollect:

nity to give you a few brief statements in reference to Prefessor Salomon's New Mechanical Motor, as it is your request, as well as a duty I owe my country. The facts are the following, as near as I now recollect:

I arrived at Cincinnati on the 5th of October, 1851, and on the following day I called to see Professor Salomon's New Mechanical Motor, of which I had read accounts in the public papers. I was desirous to see the engine, from the fact that I had for some time previous been studying to make the same principle applicable as a motive power to machinery, I was astonished and delighted in witnessing the construction and operation of the engine. I saw my embodied idea before me more perfect than I had conceived.

I witnessed the operation for near an hour. It was uni form and perfect, and of sufficient power to lift a weight of 12,000 lbs. twenty-five times in a minute. This power was applied to turn the machinery of the shop, and appeared to be equal to steam-engines commonly used in machinesshops.
The whole length of this engine is about twelve or fifteen feet and I suppose its weight might be about five or six tons. The furnace is a smail sheet-iron pan, the size of my hat, and held about a double-handful of charcoal. The machinery is not more complicated than that of the steam-engine, the principle of construction and operation being the same. This was estimated to be a twenty-five horse-power engine, or which I have given you a brief description.

I am not pecuniarily interested in the success of the invention. I never expected to be called upon to make any statements in reference to it. I have had no previous acquantance with Professor Salomon, and never saw him, to my knowledge, until I met him in this city, on yesterday.
Yours, respectfully,

THE subscriber offers for sale his Farm, situated about five miles from Washington, D. C., in Prince George's county, Md. It contains 178‡ acres, more than 30 of which is a fine alluvial meadow, producing a ton and a half of hay to the acre, but which under improved cultivation would produce at least two tons. Hay sells in the Washington market at from $14 to $20 per ton. About four acres of the place is a marsh, covered with soveral feet in thickness of black earth, the result of decayed vegetation, which, properly composted, is a source from which the upland may be enriched at a reasonable cost. About 60 acres of the farm is woodland—growth principally oak and chestnut. The land, except the meadow, is undulating, and affords many beautiful sites for building. There are many springs of excellent water on the place, and it is noted for its healthfulness. The soil of the greater part of the upland is a sandy loam, soil of the greater part of the upland is a sandy loam, underlaid by clay—in some places, clay predomina-ting. About 75 acres could be divided into small gardening farms, giving nearly an equal quantity of wood and arable land to each. There is an orchard of 150 peach trees and 60 apple trees on the place, all bearing; also, about two hundred apple trees, ready for grafting. It is well fenced. The buildings are—a log house of four rooms, with a frame addition of three rooms, a meat-house of sun-dried brick, a log kitchen separate from the dwelling, a corn-house, stable, car-riage-house, &c. TWENTY WHO TRY IT.

STILL another witness for "Hampton's Vegetable Tincture,"—This certificate is from one of our largest and most enterprising firmers—the owner of those spendid oxen exhibited at the late Agricultural Fair, and who, in person, did the ploughing, with the same, that took the oremium. We mention this, as, before Mr. Horne took the Fincture, his condition was such as to despair of even visiting the Fair, much less taking such a laborious part as he id, to the astonishment of those who had seen his state a short time before.

Messrz. Mortimer & Mowbray—Gerts: Having been afficied with Chronic Inflammatory Rheumatism for some time, in its worst form, I tried every remedy that came within my reach, without any success: in fact, my sufferings increased with every new remedy I tried, until I was scarcely able to walk, from the dreadful pains and swelling in my limbs. I had also an ulcer formed on my right wrist, which gave me intense prin.

When in this condition, Mr. Scott, Conductor on the Susquehanna Rallroad, with several others, called my attention to the many wonderful cures made by Hampton's Vegetable fincture. I determined to give it a trial, as a last resort. You well remember my sufferings at the time I got the Theuture from you—they were almost past endurance. I am happy now to inform you, that in a short time after taking it, I was relieved from pain, and could walk without difficulty, and in about four weeks I was enabled to take part in the ploughing match at our late Agricultural Fair. The ulcer on my wrist is now entirely cared, and I am in the enjoyment of the very best health, with no symptoms of my old disease; all of which I feel bound to say I owe to the great healing and restorative powers of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture.

My great confidence in it has induced me to recommend it the great healing and restorative powers or mampion's regtable Tincture.

My great confidence in it has induced me to recommend it to others, and I have also seen its good effects in a number of cases. My little daughter had been in bad health for some time: no medicine seemed to reach her case, or to do her any good, until I gave her this Tincture of Hampion's, which soon vestored her to robust health. I dotherefore cheerfully bear my testimony in favor of this valuable medicine, and I wish you to send me a dozen bottles, that I may always have it at hand. Yours, respectfully,

PORTSHOUTH, VA., Aug. 18, 1851.

Mr. J. E. Boush—Dear sir: While I sm. in general, opposed to patent medicines, candor compels me to state that I have great confidence in the virtues of Hompton's Vepetable Tincture. For several months past I have used it in my family: and in dyspepais, loss of appetite, diziness, and general debility, with entire success. So far as my experience extends, therefore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted as a safe and efficient reimedy.

I am, respectfully, yours, Vernon Eserios, Chaplain, United States Navy.

Greater weight of Testimony connot be given. Grader weight of Testimony connot be given.

Can any unprejudiced mind in the world ask stronger testimony or more convincing proof of the great restorative and curative powers of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture than given below? The writer is one of our most highly exteemed citizens, a man of integrity, and, it is extensively known, has been for a long time suffering under disease; his altered appearance now is a subject of remark, and gives additional testimony and weight to the certificate below. He is also the son of the old Doctor Dunan, whose great skill as a physician is well known to most of the oldest inhabitants of this city.

strian is well known to most of the closest innabitants of this city.

Messre Mortimer & Mowbray--Genetiment: It is with real pleasure that I am able to attest to the general healing and curative powers of Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. Some time during last November I was taken with a very bad and serious cough. I was advised to take Cod Liver Oil, and did so, but, getting no better. I was induced to try your Tincture. I got one bottle, and, before I had used it, all my cough left me. Permit me also to state, that for the last fifteen years I have suffered very much from Acute Rheumatism and Vertigo, confining me, at times, to my bed. I am fully convinced that I owe my present good health to the use of the Tincture, and a kind Providence.

You are, my friends, at liberty to use this as you may think proper; and believe me yours, very respectfully,

G. DUNAN.

Why does not Congress, or the Committee of Commerce in the Senate and House, take up this vitally-important and deplorably-neglected subject? Their attention has been called to it by an able and scientific report from the government, showing the present condition of this extensive establishment-its wants, and how they can be supplied-the disastrous consequences that are resulting to commerce from its inefficiency-and the thousands of dollars that might be saved by a proper organization of a lighthouse board, and the adoption of the Fresnel or
